Dear Bob,

I am forwarding with this letter our informal comments on the questions you left with us following the briefing on the Arab-Israeli war given by [redacted] of this office.

25X1

You will note that the item numbers in the attachment corresponds to those in your list. In addition we have added a paragraph commenting on the Israeli concept of their air offensive.

The comments are based on information derived from a great number of sources. The information is not as complete as we would like, but the major actions of the campaign have become fairly well known and there has been some opportunity to check various sources against one another. We do not plan to give these comments any other distribution and I suggest you regard them as an expression of view of the Office of Strategic Research.

If you or members of your staff should have any further questions, feel free to call me [redacted]

25X1

Sincerely yours,

BRUCE C. CLARKE, Jr.
Director
Strategic Research
